

Identification Statement

For the purposes of this statement:

- ASIC Instrument means the ASIC Corporations (Charitable Investment Fundraising) Instrument 2016/813
- DIF means Diocesan Investment Fund

Requirement	Details
Identification Information	Full Name and ABN: The Trustees of the Roman Catholic Church for the Diocese of Lismore (ABN 72 863 788 198) on behalf of the Diocesan Investment Fund (ABN 32 991 362 517). Corporate Status: A body corporate created under the provisions of the Roman Catholic Church Trust Property Act 1936. Address: 10 Orion Street, LISMORE NSW 2480
Compliance	The DIF relies upon the following exemption: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) For the period between 1 January 2017 and 31 December 2017, ASIC Instrument 04/0024, as continued in force by section 9 of the ASIC Instrument. 2) On and after 1 January 2018, exemption section 5(1) of the ASIC Instrument The DIF has received advice and has implemented appropriate policies, practices and procedures to ensure that all relevant conditions of the exemptions are met. Such policies are revised and reviewed on a regular basis to ensure ongoing compliance.
Financial year	From 1 April to 31 March of the next calendar year.
Australian Financial Services Licence	The DIF will be required to hold an Australian Financial Services Licence from 1 January 2018. The DIF does not currently hold an Australian Financial Services Licence but is applying to obtain a licence by 31 December 2017.
Charitable purpose	The charitable purpose of the DIF is the advancement of religion. It achieves this by providing a stable source of long term finance at affordable rates of interest, for Catholic parishes and institutions of the Lismore Diocese. The issue of the debentures will promote that charitable purpose by providing proceeds for loans to parishes and institutions of the Lismore Diocese. In addition, proceeds held in excess of loan requirements will be invested at a margin to provide a distribution to the Diocese of Lismore to assist with the ongoing financial needs of the Diocese.
Method of fundraising	The DIF will issue debentures as its method of fundraising.

Key terms	The debentures issued will have no fixed maturity date. A notice period may apply for withdrawals. Interest rates payable are advertised on our website www.dif.org.au. Standard interest rates are determined by the Diocesan Investment Fund Committee from time to time. The DIF does not charge any fees to debenture holders.
Investors	The DIF will offer the debenture products to people and organisations, including: <ol style="list-style-type: none">1. Wholesale investors; and2. Persons and organisations as retail, non-associated clients; and3. Persons and organisations as retail, associated clients excluding those that are voluntary staff members. Debentures are offered to potential investors in person or through printed and online promotional material issued by the DIF.
Audited financial reports	The DIF produces a General Purpose Financial Report which is audited annually. In accordance with Australian Accounting Standard AASB 1039: Concise Financial Reports, the DIF publishes a concise financial report on our website (www.dif.org.au). A copy of the full financial report is available for any investor, free of charge, upon request. For the purposes of the ACNC, the DIF is considered a basic religious charity which does not require lodgement of the audited financial statements with the DIF's Annual Information Statement.
Guarantees and obligations	CDPF Limited will provide a guarantee for the benefit of, and owe an obligation to, holders of any debentures issued by the DIF.
Acceptance of identification statement by a sponsor	This identification statement is to be accepted for the purposes of the ASIC Instrument by CDPF Limited. A copy of the Deed Poll for CDPF Limited may be found at https://www.catholic.org.au/all-downloads/bishops-commissions-1/administration-and-information-1/1911-2003-sponsor-deed-poll/file

Completed by Diocesan Investment Fund – Diocese of Lismore

Authorised representative of the Diocesan
Investment Fund

Date: 24/2/2017

Accepted by CDPF Ltd

Authorised representative of CDPF Ltd

Date: 24 FEBRUARY 2017